FEES

IIDA Members: $125 for each project submitted.

Non-Members: $200 for each project submitted

JUDGING

The judging will consist of a panel of distinguished IIDA Chapter Leaders who reside outside of Indiana. They will review the entries and select category winners on the basis of how the design solution met the project criteria and client objectives, as well as creativity and functionality of the design solution. Each of the six categories will have two awards, "The Best Idea Award" (first place) and "The Good Idea Award" (second place.) All winners will be recognized and presented an award, hand-crafted by Indiana Art Glass, at the IDEA Celebration Luncheon Event to be held Wednesday, November 1st, 2006, and no advance notice will be given to award recipients. Tickets for this event will be available for purchase beginning September 11th, 2006 through our administrator, Chad Crowe at (317)464-5383 or ccrowe@NPTeam.org.

SUPPORTING VENDORS

Each project submitted must list two Indiana-based sales representatives or vendors and their product or service that made the project successful. The impact the sales representative and/ or their product or service had on the project should be described in the Design Statement. The two sales representatives will be recognized at the IDEA Celebration with a "Socket Award." All winners will be announced at the IDEA Celebration Lunch Event and no advance notice will be given to award recipients. Submitting firms are encouraged to inform their supporting vendors they were nominated for an award and pass on the event information so they have the opportunity to attend.
